

Islamic Affairs & Charitable Activities Dept. Of Dubai (IACAD) announces an international research competition titled:
“Prophet Muhammad (peace be upon him) is a Mercy to all creatures”

As part of the ongoing ‘Mercy to the World’ campaign, this research competition on the biography (seerah) of the Prophet (pbuh) aims to elucidate:

- the various aspects of mercy to mankind embodied in the Prophet’s seerah
- the kind treatment enjoyed by different non-Muslim communities and nations throughout Islamic history

It aims to encourage Muslims to follow the Prophet Muhammad’s (pbuh) example in introducing Islam to non-Muslims.

We invite writers, researchers and students to participate in the research competition, titled “Prophet Muhammad (peace be upon him) is a Mercy to all creatures”.

The submitted researches should satisfy the following conditions:

1. Not to have been published before, or presented for any other award or competition, or for obtaining any academic degree.
2. To be original, creative, and objective.
3. To be written in Arabic or English.
4. Not to exceed 25 (A4) pages and not to be less than 15 pages.
5. The dead line for researches is 30 November, 2008.

To send your research articles & for further information, please contact the following:

Mr. Rami Killawi
00971-50-7969648
rkillawi@iacad.gov.ae

Miss Hafsa Ahmed
00971-55-9612133
hafsa.s.ahmed@gmail.com